

Jonitunes Songbook

Barkin'

Words and Music by John C. Jackson and
Chris MacAlpine

Copyright 2002 Cosmosity Music/ASCAP

V1. G C G
I say baby, I wanted to give you everything I had
 C G
You had me eatin' out da' palm of your hand.
 C G G A
And it tasted like love so I savored it, I savored it.
 B^b G[#] B^b
N' just like junk food love's come back and wounded me
 G[#] A
It wasn't good for me, no
 B^b G[#]
It looks so good for a minute but what's in it
 B^b D
Was foolin' me, and it wounded me deeply.

Ch. G C
Cause she's talkin', she's talkin' b'ind my back
 G C
And she's Barkin', Lord she's Barkin' like a ridgeback
 G C C[#] E
Walkin', she got me walkin down the tracks
 G
And I'm free and I don't like it one bit

V2. Listen to me my baby's so sophista, phistapha, phistaficated
Sompin' 'bout my lower class she said she hated
An' she's so happy that we ain't related, so she vacated.
Just like a subway love's gone down the tubes today
On the express train
I had my ticket but she told me where to stick it up sideways
And that just didn't sit right.

Chorus Repeats twice