For The Hell Of It

Words and Music by John C. Jackson

V1. G

I always thought you were my friend

D E_M

You acted like you were my brother

But now I'm feelin' like I'm only a stop along your way

And the wool you pulled across my eyes

D E_M

Is unraveling like all your lies

And drifting away in the air of lonely dawn

Ch.

You gotta go with your heart when you feel all you feel

You gotta live each day like it could be your last

Shine on the future with the light of the past

You gotta be who you are and never hurt anyone

'Cause when the curtain falls for the final time

You're gonna stay for the praises or pay for the crime

Br.

And I don't know why you turned away

Was it the stars in your eyes leaving me betrayed

Where is your heart to tear mine apart

And lay low my faith For The Hell It Chorus and Bridge Repeat

V2. I don't think I'm ever gonna change

I kinda' hope to God I never do

I'm gonna keep on trustin' like I always do

I'm gonna step right up to that flame

Jonitunes Songbook

And never worry about bein' burned

'cause it's the only way you'll ever feel the heat of love Chorus and Bridge Repeat
