And it burned down 'til it flamed no more
E_M C D
And it died out and the house went cold
E_M C E_M C
So, they moved away, gave up everything

And now they want it back

V2. And there was once a time I'd fall in love in nothin' flat
But I was young and blind gettin' all that I could get
And I turned down a lotta' better days
Goin' around in my Woodstock phase
And though I'll miss the ones I let get away
Those were high times lookin' back

Ch. Goes to show, How Love Happens

V3. So, tell me how to love, tell me how it's done today
Am I supposed to trust everything you do or say
Should I cry to expose my weakness
Or should I hide my tears away
Do I walk the line between love and hate
And get nowhere holding back

Ch. Goes to show, How Love Happens

V4. And now this little girl runs to me when I get home

Treasure of my world, diamond I will never own

And life goes on nearly everyday

Like a song with a sad refrain

But there's a perfect light shining from her eyes

And I reflect it back
