

Jonitunes Songbook

The Everyday Beauty

Words and Music by John C. Jackson

Copyright 2002 Cosmosity Music/ASCAP

Intro: D C D C

V1. D C
This morning' I sat with my wife over coffee
 C G A
She was fixin' her hair, gettin' ready for work
 D C
She turned to me lookin' like somthin' came over her
 C G A
She said that it's only my usual blur.

Ch. G
But I'm thinkin' 'bout somethin'
 D
And I don't know what it is
 G D E_M A
It's probably somethin' important as hell
 G
Or maybe it's just
 D
That with all we've got goin' on
 C E_M G A
Just where we're goin' ain't easy to tell.

V2. She said, "I'm so grateful for you and our daughter.
I don't hope for better so don't get me wrong."
I said that I didn't 'n poured her another.
Drove Sarah to school and wrote you this song.

Ch2. I know you're thinkin' 'bout somethin'
And you don't know what it is
Probably somethin' important as hell
And maybe it's true
What with all we've got goin' on
Just where we're goin' ain't easy to tell, easy to tell

Jonitunes Songbook

V3. Living is all about chasing the future

And capturing time as it's slipping away

Sometimes you gotta step back while you nurture

The Everyday Beauty you find on the way.

Ch3. We're all thinkin' 'bout somethin'

And we don't know what it is

It's probably somethin' important as hell

Or maybe it's just

What with all we've got goin' on

Knowin' where we're goin ain't easy to tell,

Easy to tell.

Last Tag – Verse 1 (2 lines)

This morning' I sat with my wife over coffee