Words and Music by John C. Jackson

Copyright 2003 Cosmosity Music/ASCAP

Intro: D G D A

V1. D G
We packed the last of the amplifiers and instruments
D G A
In the back of this rusty beat up Ford Econoline Van
D G
Tony fished a cigarette outa' my shirt
D
Sat himself down in the passenger seat
G A
And sighed a line he'd just written on his hand

Ch. E_M D C B_M
You Can Drive, I don't mind
E_M D C B_M A
You Can Drive, to paradise

V2. We headed outa' town in the moonlight
On a long drive to the Jersey Shore music swimmin' in our heads
Goin' on and on about the future
And the late-night girls we'd meet there
And oh my God the good times we'd have

Ch2. And we'd play anywhere the money was good
Anywhere the honeys would show
We were young men in love with the road

V3. We drove to the dawn at Sommers Point
Parked the van in the back lot
Behind the bar we were playin' at that night
Checked-in down by the bayside
Drew our blankets over the sand
And nodded-off to the lullaby of the tides

Ch3. And we'd go anywhere the breezes would blow

Anywhere it pleased us to go

We were young men in love with the road

Br. E_M D C
And there was nothin' ever got in the way
 B_M E_M
Wouldn't move by itself when we'd play
 D C A
Life disappeared on the stage everyday

V4. The years have gone by rapidly

We've had our share of tragedy

And Tony and I don't play much anymore

But sometimes when the summer comes

I'll get a call from my old friend

And once again we're young men on the road

And he'll say...

Ch4. You Can Drive one more time

You Can Drive to paradise

You Can Drive I'm just goin' along for the ride

You Can Drive we'll find our way to paradise
